Introduce Brod Boxley of Achievement Network:

Building the Conditions for Learning to happen: Equity grounded in Faith and Compassion.

Essential Questions:

1. How do we develop a spirit and sense of mindfulness in ourselves and our stakeholders around race, equity and justice that can assist us in being better allies, educators and better support the communities that we serve?
2. How can we make this an essential part of our daily walk?
3. How do we lead with compassion and partner as we assist in support of each child's deepening engagement in learning?

Instructional Vision

We believe that excellent instruction empowers the ACA community to deliver on our guiding principles, and happens when ALL scholars have access to four key resources:

1. Consistent opportunities to work on grade appropriate assignments
2. Strong instruction, where scholars do most of the thinking and acting in a lesson
3. Deep scholar engagement in what they're learning
4. Teachers who hold high expectations for scholars and believe they can learn at high levels.
